July 12 to 21 & July 26 to August 4, 2017

Day 1 L
Travel day to Ottawa via Peterborough to view the world's highest Hydraulic Lift Locks. Check into the hotel for the next three nights.

Day 2 B, D
After breakfast, tour the Centre Block Parliament Building: the Senate Chambers, House of Commons and the Peace Tower. After the tour, view the Changing of the Guard, the traditional military performance of the "ceremonial guards". Leave for the Canadian Museum of History which contains exhibits interpreting Canada's history from its Native People to the present and view an IMAX presentation. Lunch on own at Museum.

Day 3 B, D
After breakfast, visit the Canadian War Museum, a dramatic concrete and glass, bunker style building: the grass on the roof suggests regeneration – a necessary result of war. The permanent exhibits organized chronologically, illustrates Canada's military history, in war and on the home front. Lunch is on own at the Byward Market. After lunch, leave for Gatineau Park. While travelling through the park, you will witness its natural beauty. Visit the Mackenzie King Estate, the summer residence of three-time prime minister William Lyon Mackenzie King. Here Mackenzie King welcomed notable guests such as Winston Churchill and Charles Lindbergh.

Day 4 B, D
This morning we leave for the beautiful city of Quebec and check into our Victorian hotel in historic Old Quebec, our home for the next four nights.

Day 5 B, D
We begin the day with a guided city tour of the historical sites of Old Quebec within and below the walls of Upper and Lower Town. This walled section of Quebec City is a unique world heritage site, an insight into the heart of Old France.

Day 6 B, L
This day is spent touring many of the natural and cultural heights surrounding Quebec City. We will view Montmorency Falls Park, drive through the Ile d'Orleans, visit Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupre Shrine, and Cyclorama of Jerusalem – a cylindrical painting 14 metres and 110 metres in circumference, depicting Jerusalem at the time of Christ. We will continue our journey by visiting the Atelier Pare-Econo museum of woodcarving, featuring painting and wood creations depicting Quebec legends.

Day 7 B, L
The day is spent in the historic Village of Saint-Jean-Port-Joli. The village was founded in 1679 and is famous as the handicraft-weaving and wood carving capital of Quebec. The village church dates from 1779, with its interior wood carvings remain intact. Lunch will be at the Faubourg O Fleuve. After lunch, tour the "Musee Sculptures sur Boix des Ancien Canadiens", which displays more than 250 carvings and handicrafts by local artisans.

Day 8 B, D
Today, we travel to Kingston, our home city for the next two nights. During the afternoon, we will visit and have dinner in the Officers Mess at Fort Henry. Following dinner, the Fort Henry Guards will perform muster drills and military demonstrations. Fort Henry was built during the War of 1812 and has been restored as a museum of British and Canadian military history.

Day 9 B, L, D
After breakfast, tour the historic Kingston sites, including Bellevue House National Historic Site. Bellevue, built in 1840, was the residence of Sir John A. Macdonald, the first prime minister of the confederated provinces of Canada in 1867. After the land tour, we depart on a three hour "Heart of the Island Luncheon Cruise," a narrated tour of the Thousand Islands and Kingston Harbour. Enjoy our farewell dinner in one of Kingston's wonderful restaurants.

Day 10 B
Following breakfast, we travel back to Port Colborne
