

April 22 to May 4, 2018

The Mistral Hotel is a singles resort which caters exclusively for independent and single travellers who enjoy great food, good company and a warm, natural environment. Crete is the largest of the Greek islands and the southernmost point of Europe. It is blessed with stunning beaches, turquoise blue sea and a wonderful climate. The geographical location of Crete, climate and variety of altitude and terrain has created an amazing diversity of flowers, plants, trees, wildlife and marine life. There is an abundance of activities available such as scuba diving, snorkelling, cycling, horse riding, and parasailing. For lovers of culture, there are many museums and world famous archaeological sites. There are tiny churches tucked away with beautiful frescoes, Roman baths, mosaics, tombs and ancient olive trees.

Sunday, April 22

Depart Canada.

Monday, April 23

Arrival Mistral Hotel. A Welcome Meeting will be given before dinner with a complimentary drink.

Tuesday, April 24

Free day to explore.

Wednesday, April 25

Begin the holiday with orange picking from the vast inland groves, then onto Agia Lake with time to relax and enjoy stunning views of the White Mountains. From here visit the Botanical Gardens of Crete. Our lunch will be eaten overlooking the valleys of olive and orange groves.

Thursday, April 26

Travel east to the Apokoronas area of Chania and tour the Dourakis Winery. Enjoy the local cuisine and in house wines over lunch.

Friday, April 27

Enjoy a walk to Milia in the foothills of the White Mountains. Milia is an authentic 17th century settlement which has been transformed into an eco-friendly tourist complex boasting exceptional rugged beauty. Here we enjoy lunch made from locally grown seasonal produce and made using traditional cooking techniques.

Saturday, April 28

Journey to the beautiful sandy beach of Falasarna, take a few hours to swim, sunbathe, enjoy a refreshing drink and visit a nearby Hellenistic archaeological site. Then, travel south to the beachside village of Sfinari where the Baladakis family will prepare and serve an authentic lunch.

Sunday, April 29

Today indulge in Minoan history at the world famous archaeological site of Knossos Palace. Learn the story behind Sir Arthur Evan's excavations and wonder over the 4,000 year old Minoan artifacts. From here, onto the Archaeological Museum in the island's capital of Heraklion. Enjoy a sumptuous meal at a tavern on the historic Venetian Harbour in Chania.

Monday, April 30

Visit Biolea, a family-owned company specializing in the artisan production of olive oil. From here, travel on to the beautiful gorge of Deliana to see the stunning rock formations, plant life and varied bird life. A packed lunch will be provided.

Tuesday, May 1

A free day to explore the local area or take a bus into Chania city for some sightseeing and shopping.

Wednesday, May 2

Take part in a coastal walk which takes about 2.5 hours. This stunning walk along the Rotherpou Peninsula starts in the ancient village of Nopigia, passing the remains of a Hellenistic harbour and ascends to great heights overlooking the Kissamos Bay. We finish in the traditional village of Ravdouha for lunch.

Thursday, May 3

Take a day trip to the village of Loutro, which is only accessible by boat. Start with a drive to historic Sfakia made famous by the evacuation of Allied Troops during the Battle of Crete. A private boat will take us along rugged coastline to secluded Sweetwater Bay for a swim in the Libyan Sea, and refreshments. From here, travel up the coast to the picturesque village of Loutro for a leisurely lunch.

Friday, May 4

Depart Greece

B – Buffet Breakfast

L – Lunch
