Fly to Winnipeg, the capital and largest city of the province of Manitoba, centred on the convergence of the Red and Assiniboine rivers. After check-in, head to a replica of Fort Gibraltar for a welcome 3 course dinner. Fort Gibraltar was a North West Company trading post. It played a crucial role in the development of the Red River Colony and in the conflict between the North West Company and the Hudson's Bay Company.

This is a unique vehicle, well heated and with over inflated tires allowing unparallel access onto the tundra to provide the best opportunities to view polar bears and other arctic wildlife. A hearty box lunch, prepared locally, will be served onboard. Return to Churchill at dusk for dinner where there will also be time to shop for some Inuit soapstone carvings or other local souvenirs. Fly back to Winnipeg arriving late evening at the hotel.

Depart the museum to the nearby Forks National Historic site, Winnipeg's "meeting place". Lunch is on your own at the Forks Market.
