NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC JOURNEYS WITH G ADVENTURES

National Geographic Journeys with G Adventures is a collection of unique tours designed to take you deeper into the cultures and habitats of the places we explore. They offer more inclusions compared to other G Adventures Travel Styles, greater hands-on exploration, interactions with local experts, and the freedom to roam, all within the structure and security of travelling in a small group.

Discover an unforgettable experience with G-Adventures and National Geographic as you Explore Central Europe. In this small group departure, you will have the opportunity to be immersed in culture of different countries, including Germany, Czechia, (formally known as the Czech Republic), Austria and Hungary. Experience history by visiting a section of the Berlin Wall where your journey begins. Walk on cobblestone streets that take you back to medieval times or experience Gothic Castles and get lost in hidden passageways with your time in Czechia. Feel like a local in Vienna with a trip to the local market Naschmarkt, known as the restaurant that never sleeps. Explore Budapest where your journey finishes.

MAP OF ITINERARY

FRIDAY, JUNE 13

Overnight flight from Toronto to Berlin

SATURDAY, JUNE 14

Arrive in Berlin. Enjoy free time around Berlin before the welcome meeting.

Accommodations: Hilton Berlin or similar

SUNDAY, JUNE 15

Set out on an orientation with your CEO this morning to get your bearings. Then discover sections of the Berlin Wall with a local historian, and delve deeper into the political and social history of the Iron Curtain from its rise to fall. Afternoon is free to explore from people-watching at the historic Brandenburg Gate or glimpse the city's flourishing art scene at local galleries and museums. With a choice of an optional excursion offered.

MONDAY, JUNE 16

Travel to Prague, the capital of Czechia, (formally known as the Czech Republic) one of Europe's best-preserved medieval cities. Includes a guided tour of the historic center, which dates back to 14th century and has now been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Walk cobblestone streets, chart the city's development through the centuries according to the architectural styles from middle age to present day. This evening opt, to watch the sunset from a lively beer garden on the banks of the Vltava River.

Accommodations: Miss Sophie's Downtown or similar

TUESDAY, JUNE 17

Enjoy a free day to explore the "city of a hundred spires." Wind your way past baroque domes and gothic spires, extensive plazas and spectacular cathedrals. Cross the iconic Charles Bridge, amble through the historic Jewish Quarter, marvel at the medieval astronomical clock, and delve into modern history at Wenceslas Square, where citizens rallied for an end to communism during the Velvet Revolution. Check out a local restaurant and try traditional Czech cuisine, such as goulash and dumplings. Your CAA Tour Director is available to assist you to plan your day.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18

Take a scenic drive through the Bohemian countryside to the fairytale town of Český Krumlov, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Choose to visit the Český Krumlov State Castle and Chateau, and get lost in the Gothic castle's hidden passageways, Baroque theatre, and hedge maze as you explore these epic grounds built between the 14th and 19th centuries.

The inclusion of Český Krumlov on UNESCO's list of Natural and Cultural Heritage was undoubtedly a turning point in the modern history of the town. It sent a clear signal to the rest of the cultural world that South Bohemia has something unique to offer.

Accommodations: Hotel Gold or similar

B – Breakfast

THURSDAY, JUNE 19

Cross the border into Austria where there will be an orientation walk around Vienna. Stop by a local café to pair a cup of rich Viennese coffee with a slice of the famed Sacher torte—a decadent chocolate and nougat confection historically linked to the city's distinguished coffee houses.
