■ MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24

A morning departure begins this journey to the Fairmont Chateau Montebello. Known for its rustic charm, unique architecture, and beautiful natural surroundings – imagine how it will look when decorated for the holidays!

Accommodations: Fairmont Le Chateau Montebello or similar

■ TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25

After breakfast, we continue our trip to Quebec City. Tour the Monastère des Ursulines Chapel. Innovation and open-mindedness are two words that characterize the Ursuline boarding school in Quebec City during the 19th century. Hear about the remarkable variety of people who have passed through the chapel over the years. This tour gives a rare look at a place normally reserved for the nuns and their students. Later this afternoon we check into the Fairmont Chateau Frontenac, our home for the next three nights.

Accommodations: Fairmont Le Chateau Frontenac or similar

■ WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Today, enjoy a guided morning tour of Quebec City. This afternoon is on our own for Christmas shopping in Old Quebec City or simply relax in the holiday ambiance of the hotel.

■ THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27

The day is all yours to experience Quebec City's Christmas Market. Discover Canadian, German, and European Christmas traditions. Taste traditional European cuisine and enjoy a glass of mulled wine, a fresh pretzel, and other delicious specialties. Meet artisans from Québec and Europe. This is a great opportunity to complete your shopping Christmas list with unique gifts.
