Celebrity X Cruises®

■ Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Fort Lauderdale lies along Florida’s southeastern coast, known for its boating canals and recreational waterways. This strip has a promenade running beside the six miles of beach with beautiful ocean views. There is lots to do from outdoor trendy restaurants, and shopping boutiques, to an array of entertainment venues.

■ Philipsburg, St. Maarten

St Maarten is a beautiful blend of cultures that is unique. The island is home to many different nationalities and is governed happily between France and the Netherlands. There is so much to do on this island – embrace the beauty by taking a scenic tour or by exploring the culinary of the island.

■ St. Johns, Antigua

Antigua and Barbuda formed on independent country in the British commonwealth in 1981. The English settled here in 1632. Discover one of the 365 Caribbean beaches of turquois waters hidden among countless cliffs and bays. See the lush rainforest and dramatic landscapes.

■ Castries, St. Lucia

Novelist James A. Michener described it as "the most beautiful bay in the Caribbean." Sample the best of St. Lucia on a highlights tour to the Castries Market, historic Catholic church, city square, and don't miss breathtaking views from Caribelle Batik, offering artisanal goods. Or, join a leisurely coastal cruise past Marigot Bay.

■ Bridgetown, Barbados

When Bajans say, "Life's a beach," they mean 80 pristine beaches, some long and straight, some hidden among cliffs, many among the world's most beautiful. People have come here to trade since the English in 1627. Today, find designer fashion, fine jewelry, fragrances, electronics, and leather in this tax haven. Talented islanders produce exquisite art and collectables.

■ Roseau, Dominica

On this tiny island of high mountains and unusual beaches, explore volcanoes, rainforests, and a reef that bubbles. In the capital, Roseau, sway to the infectious rhythm of reggae and behold the historic architecture of the French Quarter. Discover the black sand beaches, eerie shipwrecks, and teeming Caribbean reefs. Underwater volcanic vents at Champagne Reef turn the sea here into an effervescent dream world. Marvel at the boiling lake and seething geysers in the Valley of Desolation.

■ Basseterre, St. Kitts & Nevis

In the Port of Basseterre, see greens of every shade. In St Kitts the island is ripe with the eco-tourism from the rolling hills, mountain peaks to its breath-taking views. You can find culture and history to explore in the impressive estates and photo-worthy monuments like the Brimstone Hill Fortress which is one of the best-preserved military structures in the Americas.
