■ New Orleans, Louisiana

It seems nothing can dampen the spirits where the good times roll, the jazz is cool and the food is hot. Get in on the action in the world-famous Vieux Carre, better known as the French Quarter, with its Dixieland sounds and Bourbon Street banter.

■ Costa Maya, Mexico

This coastal paradise features stunning beaches with soft white sand and blue skies. Be transported to the world of the Maya's through their rituals, dances, and food that reflect on the origins and evolution of the Mexican culture. Looking for some adventure explore the ancient Mayan ruins with its many archaeological sites.

■ Harvest Caye, Belize

Belize is well known for its eco-tourism, which is diverse and consists of jungles, rainforests, swamps, and even coral reefs. With Harvest Caye's stunning landscape, there is plenty to do on the island.

■ Roatan, Honduras

Beautiful and unspoiled, Roatán is a peaceful, eco-tourist's dream, just 30 miles off the coast of Honduras. Teeming with marine life and home to some of the best pillar coral in the Caribbean, the pristine Honduran Reef is a diver's paradise. And the beauty of Tabyana Beach is always a sight to see.

■ Puerto Limon, Costa Rica

In recent years Puerto Limón has become better known as must-see stop for eco-tourists. The region's unique geography and neo-tropical climate combined with abundant rainforests make for one of the most naturally diverse "biospheres" in the world. Take advantage of national parks and reserves in all directions from Limón. Look close as many guests have reported seeing peaceful sloths lumbering in the trees right in port!

■ Colón, Panama

Sail into Colón and grab a good spot on deck so you can take in the view. What a picture it is! Behold the Atlantic Ocean entrance to the famous Panama Canal! Born from a desire to get to California (and its Gold Rush) as fast as possible, this industrious town was the last stop on the 19th century Panama Railroad.

■ Cartagena, Colombia

The old walled city of Cartagena reflects a turbulent history of conquistadors and pirates. Climb "las murallas" for an unforgettable view of the harbour. Shop for emeralds and leather goods along the cobblestone streets of this enchanting city.

■ Ocho Rios, Jamaica

The golden beaches, swaying palm trees and fragrant air are just a prelude to what surrounds this beautiful city. Within the nearby jungle-covered mountains are the magnificent Dunn's River Falls, the foliage of Fern Gully and the untouched beauty of the White River.

■ George Town, Grand Cayman

The largest of the Cayman Islands, Grand Cayman is famous for its Seven Mile Beach, the popular Stingray City and its excellent diving. Both nature and history are preserved underwater with a collection of easily viewed shipwrecks.

■ Cozumel, Mexico

The island of Cozumel is off the tip of the Yucatan Peninsula and is known for its snorkeling and diving opportunities. The island of Cozumel and its only town, San Miguel, retain much of their original warmth and charm. Relax on the powder-white beaches or experience the taste of Mexican chocolate.
