■ TUESDAY, MAY 11

B

This morning, join a local guide for a sightseeing tour of Ottawa, taking in some of the city's most notable landmarks and Tulip Festival highlights. The tour includes a visit to Commissioners Park, home to the main Tulip Festival displays, along with views of Rideau Hall, the grounds of Parliament Hill, and Major's Hill Park, where more beautiful tulips can be admired. Enjoy lunch on your own at the ByWard Market, with free time to explore the market and surrounding area. In the afternoon, discover the Canadian Museum of History and explore its fascinating exhibits showcasing Canada's rich heritage and culture. The remainder of the evening is free to explore Ottawa at your leisure.

■ WEDNESDAY, MAY 12

B

After breakfast, visit the Canadian War Museum and discover Canada's military history through its fascinating exhibits and collections. Explore stories of Canada's military past, from early conflicts to modern-day missions, and gain a deeper appreciation for the experiences and sacrifices of those who served. Following the museum visit, enjoy a guided tour of the Canadian Parliament buildings. Afterwards, head to Commissioners Park and Queen Juliana Park for another opportunity to admire the beautiful tulips. The evening is free.

■ THURSDAY, MAY 13

Before departing Ottawa, enjoy a guided tour of the Royal Canadian Mint, where you'll discover how Canada's coins are produced and learn about the fascinating craftsmanship behind them. See an impressive collection of precious metals, including over $1 million worth of pure gold, and even have the opportunity to hold a solid gold bar! As we make our way home, stop at The Big Apple, a unique roadside attraction known for its enormous apple-shaped building, standing approximately 35 feet tall. Enjoy time to explore before continuing our journey home, bringing along wonderful memories of our time in Ottawa.
